My Crayons Talk

At the bottom of the page are some of the objects that author Patricia Hubbard associates with the different colors in her book. If your copy is black and white, help your child color the pictures. Then, cut out the pictures and, with your child put each picture in the box where it belongs. Put them in the envelope marked My Crayons Talk, and paste the envelope in the inside cover of the book so you and your child can play this game again.
